

The UNC-CH Student Chapter of the National Press Photographer Association presents:

PHOTONIGHT LVII

Tuesday, March 23, 7:30- 9 p.m.

Carroll Rm. 33

JENN ACKERMAN

Jenn Ackerman and Tim Gruber are a husband and wife team who use still photography and cinematic video to provide compelling visuals and storytelling to editorial, non-profit and commercial clients.

Ackerman and Gruber began as newspaper photographers where they learned to be quick on their feet and nurtured the way they see the world. Since, they have won an Emmy and have worked for editorial and commercial clients around the world.

CAROLINA
PHOTOJOURNALISM
& MULTIMEDIA

PhotoNight is an opportunity for students, professionals and enthusiasts to come together and share work. The evening is designed to give photographers the chance to learn from each other and develop their own style. For more information contact Chad Stevens at chadstevens@unc.edu

PhotoNight Parking

Carroll Hall is located behind Memorial Auditorium, near the Carolina Inn and the intersection of Cameron Ave. and South Columbia. The best lots are the Haines visitor lot across from Memorial Hall, the N7 Nash Lot or the Water Tower lot off of Cameron. Please print the map above or log on to:
